

School District Toolkit

As a school district you have the power to create positive change to the health of so many students. Cooking and good food are at the centre of this so make sure your district is at the forefront of the food revolution.

START A FOOD REVOLUTION IN YOUR SCHOOL DISTRICT

POWER TO THE KIDS

Get kids cooking for the entire school – could become competitive – schools cook for each other

Set up student run farmers market

IN YOUR SCHOOLS

Install healthy fun vending machines in schools

COMMUNITY

Set up cooking classes with volunteer teachers

Make use of the empty space in your community – create school-run gardens

THIS TOOLKIT IS BASED UPON THE FOLLOWING CONCEPTS FROM THE OPENIDEO COMMUNITY:

★ The Vegetable Circus Stage Shows and After-school Programs

"An interactive way to 'teach children about eating and living.'"

by Rob Close

★ What's for Dinner? – Last Class of the Day

"Bring cooking curricula back in to schools."

by Chris Waugh

★ Students get to create that day's school lunch for the entire school

"Classrooms will be empowered."

by Eb Davis III

★ Student-run Farmers Market

"Create a farmers-style market at school."

by Mark Newcomer

★ Made by Earth Vending Machine

"Help children make their own choices while learning about nutrition."

by Joe Force

★ Low-Income Apartments, Gardens, Coaches, and Community

"It is time to make gardening a way of life."

by Julie Gwinn

★ The Good Food Vending Quota

"Allocate a percentage of space to locally produced and sourced produce."

by Kyle Baptista
